

Plant Protein Bakery Solutions

Plant Protein Bakery Solutions

Plant Protein = Demand Creation

Taste is always king and the trend for convenience continues to grow. For example, over ½ of US consumers spend 5 minutes or less to prepare breakfast in the morning! And the hectic pace of consumer lifestyles does not appear to be easing up anytime soon, leading to a demand for convenience all day long. In addition consumers increasingly look for reduced sugar, fiber and whole grains.

Cargill partners with customers to develop solutions to address increasing consumer demand for great taste, convenience and health. Our plant protein solutions deliver functionality in formulation and label-friendly appeal and are backed by a secure supply chain and a team of technical experts around the world.
